AKC NATIONAL OWNER-HANDLED SERIES

Judging Procedures for the AKC National Owner-Handled Series

Determining Exhibitor Eligibility

The first step in judging the AKC National Owner-Handled Series is determining exhibitor eligibility. Follow these tips to properly make the eligibility determination:

- Exhibitors must declare their dog AKC National Owner-Handled Series eligible at the time of entry using the check box on the entry form.
- The handler must be an owner of record according to the AKC's records as of the date of the show.
- Dogs declared eligible will be identified by an asterisk or other representative mark in the steward's book and in the show catalog.
- Professional handlers, household members and current assistants to professional handlers may not exhibit. A current assistant is defined as anyone employed by a professional handler on a full-time basis, or, assisting a professional handler at the show or any show during the cluster/weekend.
- Dogs must be handled by an owner-handler eligible for the AKC National Owner-Handled Series throughout the breed level competition for the regular show. This includes the class competition and subsequent competition in the breed ring. Additionally, dogs must be handled by an eligible owner-handler for all AKC National Owner-Handled Series competition.

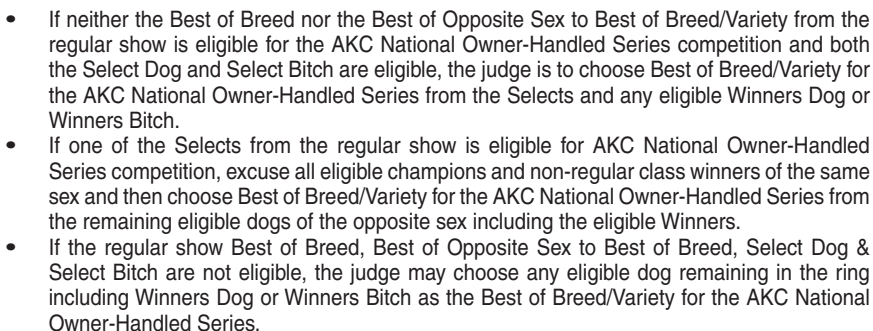

The Best of Breed/Variety for the AKC National Owner-Handled Series will be selected from the eligible dogs that competed in the Best of Breed/Variety competition for the regular show. This includes Winners Dog, Winners Bitch, and the undefeated winners of the non-regular classes. This excludes all dogs defeated during class and winners competition for the regular show.

Determining Best of Breed/Variety

The selection of the Best of Breed/Variety for the AKC National Owner-Handled Series is held immediately following regular judging of that breed/variety in the same ring. The ring steward will excuse all exhibitors not eligible for AKC National Owner-Handled Series Best of Breed/Variety. The judge will then award the AKC National Owner-Handled Series Best of Breed/Variety.

Judging of the breed/variety for the regular show may determine the dog that is awarded the Best of Breed/Variety for the AKC National Owner-Handled Series. Please follow these guidelines:

- If the Best of Breed/Variety winner of the regular show is eligible for the AKC National Owner-Handled Series competition, it will also be awarded Best of Breed/Variety for the AKC National Owner-Handled Series.
- If the regular show Best of Breed/Variety winner is not eligible for AKC National Owner-Handled Series competition and the regular show Best of Opposite Sex to Best of Breed/Variety is eligible, the regular show Best of Opposite Sex to Best of Breed/Variety will compete against the eligible exhibits of the other sex to determine Best of Breed/Variety for the AKC National Owner-Handled Series.

THE FOLLOWING DOES NOT APPLY TO SINGLE BREED SHOWS

Some guidelines for judging Group and Best in Show competition for the AKC National Owner-Handled Series:

NORTHERN CALIFORNIA FRENCH BULLDOG CLUB SPONSORSHIP PROGRAM

As it is with any non-profit organization, the Northern California French Bulldog Club is dependent upon the generosity of our members and friends. Without their support, we would be unable to continue as an advocate for the breed we all love. More importantly, we would be unable to offer education to those interested in being a French Bulldog owner and support when needed for those who already share their lives with a Frenchie. We also have members who volunteer in French Bulldog Rescue and we have owners who have Frenchies that work in various therapy areas. Needless to say the club and it's members go beyond the show ring. Whether your dog is a companion, competitor or therapy dog, the club exists for you, working to maintain the breed standard, protect the integrity of the breed and support all French Bulldog enthusiasts. We are grateful for all the support we receive, whether it be giving time to help with some of our functions or donating to some of our funds. Without this support we would not be able to continue our mission. The NCFBC Sponsorship Program goes a long way to helping us along. We thank those of you who have supported the club and hope others will follow your lead.
